

THE SPOUTSPRING TIMES.

50 cents a year.

We are here to help Spoutspring, the surrounding country and ourselves.

J. E. Burgher, Jr., Publisher.

VOL. 3.

SPOUTSPRING, ESTILL COUNTY, KY., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1893.

NO. 31.

Every Day in the Week

There can be found a Select Stock of the Best

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES

AND

General Merchandise

AT

J. W. DAWSON & BRO'S,

SPOUTSPRING, KY.

You can't buy wrong at our store because we sell right and to everybody alike.

Our prices are always right

We pay the highest price for country produce

We carry an elegant stock of goods all the time

You Get a Full

100 cts. to the $

when you trade with us.

Zinc and Lead in Anderson.

Zinc, lead and possibly silver have been found in Anderson county in paying quantities. A company will be incorporated to work the property, and the necessary machinery will be bought and put in this fall.

The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat prints the following for a true story, says the Winchester Democrat: A daughter of Capt. C. P. Brooks walked in her sleep eight miles along the C. & O. railroad, passing through one long tunnel and over twelve trestles. Chickens crowing for daylight awakened her, and when she realized her position, found herself standing by a mile post, eight miles east of Olive Hill. More trains than usual had passed over the road that night, and it seems almost a miracle that she was not killed.

A Chicago paper states that a young couple got married on the North side. The question will naturally arise why they didn't get married all over.

An "Old Folks" Dinner.

At an "old folks" dinner given by Dr. Guerrant and wife, at Wilmore, Jessamine county, twenty-six guests over seventy years of age gathered to enjoy the generous old citizen's hospitality and talk over "other days." The oldest person present was Mr. David Black, the venerable elder from Troy church, who is as erect as a poplar and in possession of all his faculties to a remarkable degree, and will be ninety-two years of age next January.

Some newspaper men are terrible liars, says an exchange. In writing of a cyclone out west one of them said it turned a well inside out, a cellar upside down moved a township line, blew all the staves out of a whiskey barrel and left nothing but a bung hole, changed the day of the week, blew the hair off a bald-headed man, blew mortgages off farms, blew all the cracks out of a fence and took all the wind out of a politician.

KENTUCKY NEWSLETS

Gleaned from all parts of the Commonwealth

Short, Readable Items of Interest to All.

The re-union of the Fourth Kentucky Confederates will be held at Owenton, October 12.

The Kings Mountain Canning Co. is putting up 800 bushels of tomatoes a day, or 10,000 cans.

David Freeman, eighty-four, and Mrs. Annie Brandenburg, fifty, were married in Woodford county Thursday.

Of the 173 suits on the circuit court docket for the September term at Henderson, twenty-five are for divorce.

The contract has been let for the building of a new colored school building at Richmond. The building cost $5,595.

There is not a vacant business house nor residence in Carrollton, notwithstanding a number of new houses have been built this season.

Mr. Thomas Kennon, of Carlisle county, near Kirbyton, was killed by lightning. He was about fifty years old and leaves a large family.

A nine-year-old son of a prominent Hopkins county farmer found his father's pistol which went off in his hand and killed him.

A car load of the best trotting and pacing horses ever got together in Marion county was shipped from Lebanon to Grayville, Ill., where the opening meeting of the Tri-State circuit began Thursday.

The Wisconsin Hoop Co., an incorporation of large capital, and long business, have about decided to locate a factory at Hickman for the manufactory of hoop poles. The plant will work 35 men at the beginning.

Mr. W. B. Campbell, one of the leading farmers of Caldwell county, left two leaves of tobacco of this year's growth in the Princeton Banner office that measures forty-two inches each in length. The width is correspondingly great.

At Hodgenville Annie Trumbo and Sallie Evans quarreled over a string of beads and it is said the Trumbo girl produced a pistol and fired at the Evans girl, the ball taking effect in the mouth of the latter, knocking out five or six teeth and tearing off a part of the nose.

Chas. Bivens shot and killed a man named Redmond at Mosceyville, Davis county.

In Shelbyville a cake walk to the prettiest young lady, at 5 cents a vote, brought $75.

Last week a baby was born to the wife of Jack Haines, of Marshall county, which weighed only one pound.

The big Watts steel plant at Middlesboro turned out its first product last week, and it is said to be a first-class article.

The State Baptist Young People's Union convention will be held at Georgetown, beginning the 21st of this month.

Davis S. Stevens, a prominent farmer of Union county, aged sixty years, committed suicide Monday morning by hanging with a plow line.

Capt. S. B. White, aged 45 years, and one of the most prominent business men of Richmond, was found dead in his chamber Monday evening.

The Auxer Plow Company, of Paintsville, Friday filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State with $2,500 capital, with the privilege of increasing it to $10,000.

There are but seven negroes in Wolfe county. Some of the Kentucky mountaineers say they never saw one until they came to Lexington to join the Fourth Regiment. In this city there are 14,000 negroes in a population of 30,000.—Winchester Democrat.

There is on exhibition at the Cadiz telephone office a curio in the way of a leaf, or rather four fronds of tobacco all on one stem. Mr. A. M. Wilson plucked it from a plant of tobacco in his patch. Each leaf has a length of twenty-five inches and a width of eleven inches.

At Sparta, Galatin county William Turley shot his father, Amos Turley, twice in the bowels during a family quarrel. The father had been drinking and threatened to whip his wife, when the son interfered. The father died Sunday. The son is still at home and has not been arrested.

Dennis McNamara, of Paris, has returned from Urbana, O., where he assisted his brother, Will McNamara, in performing the hypnotic burial feat, which was witnessed by about 25,000 people at the Urbana fair. Dennis was buried on Tuesday and was resurrected on Friday. He lost eighteen pounds during the three days, but has suffered no ill effect.—Exchange.

Maxims Up to Date.

A rolling stone gets there all the same.

Necessity fathers the invention of many lies.

It's a polite wind that blows nobody's hat from his head.

Do as you would be done by, if the other fellow did you.

Make hay while the sun shines, but make haste when it rains.

The proof that the pudding is not fit to eat is in trying to eat it.

You may lead a man to water but you can't prevent his drinking something stronger.

Never take the will for the deed, when you can get the deed for a rich man's will.—Philadelphia Record.

Don't undertake to lay another man out unless you are an undertaker. It's not a healthy business.

Rev. Mr. Longnecker—I wish I could think of some way to make the congregation look at me during my sermon.

Little Tommy—Pa you want to put the clock behind you and tell the people how long you are going to talk.

If you want your business to grow advertise in the Times.

An Old Adage Reads:

"There is a place for everything"

Now for everything to be in its place. The Louisville Dispatch should be in the home of every Democrat in the South. The Dispatch is the people's paper, owned by the people and read by the people. The Dispatch is the only Democratic paper published in Louisville. It stands squarely on the Chicago platform. It is not only in a flourishing condition after eighteen months battling against adverse circumstances, but is to-day the best medium in the South. And its motto—If you see it in the Dispatch it's so; if it's so it is always in the Dispatch, has been fully verified during the American-Spanish war, during which the superiority of its news service has been daily apparent.

The Dispatch news service is furnished by the New-York Sun, the Chicago Inter-Ocean, the Northern Press Association and the Leslie Syndicate with an active salaried correspondent in every important city in the world, besides its own staff of over 300 correspondents in Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana. Get the Dispatch, it gives the news, and tells the truth about it.

The Dispatch is Kentucky's greatest paper. You should be a reader. For the next few weeks we will club with the Weekly Dispatch at the extremely low price of 75 cts.

Buy "Sweep Clean" broom made by Progress Broom Manufacturing Co., Spoutspring, Ky.